

Dairy Forum is the premier conference for leaders in the dairy industry. It is where more than 1,000 executives and decision makers connect each year, advance their knowledge, and discover new perspectives on issues that are important to our industry. The event will feature three and a half days of top-notch programming, networking, and discussions about leadership, technology, global trade, sustainability, innovation, and navigating the political landscape.

For those interested in sponsorship, Dairy Forum is the place to be seen and heard. Sponsorship is one of the best ways to brand your organization as a thought-leader and to highlight your commitment to advancing the dairy industry. IDFA offers various levels of sponsorship opportunities.
