

INTERNATIONAL SWEETENER COLLOQUIUM

February 22–25, 2026 • ChampionsGate, Florida

This toolkit was designed for use in promotion of the International Sweetener Colloquium, which will take place from February 22 – 25, 2026 in ChampionsGate, Florida.

Overview

Co-hosted by the Sweetener Users Association and the International Dairy Foods Association, the International Sweetener Colloquium provides a unique opportunity for key players from all sectors to discuss the most pressing issues facing the global sweetener industry.

Attendees will be given the opportunity to participate in content-rich sessions with presentations from a wide range of speakers, addressing the latest challenges and opportunities facing the industry. Topics will cover everything from government regulation and political outlook to current research findings and market trends.

The Colloquium draws hundreds of professionals and decision-makers from the sweetener industry and from companies that use sweeteners in the products they make. Buyers, processors, refiners, distributors and food companies actively participate in the Colloquium, using it as a springboard to enhance their business and trading-partner networks.

More information about the conference can be found by visiting www.idfa.org/international-sweetener-colloquium!

Social media toolkit

IDFA and SUA will be promoting this event on their social media platforms, and encourage partners, speakers, and sponsors to re-share that content with their audiences. In addition, below are several samples for social media copy and graphics that can be posted on your own platforms.

Social media graphics for each of the conference sessions, in addition to templates that attendees and sponsors can use, can be found here. Please feel free to use any of these social media graphics in your promotion of the event and your participation.

Don't forget to use the conference hashtag #SweetenerColloquium and tag IDFA and SUA in any posts you share!
